MINUTES

- I. Call to Order – Randy Riggs called the meeting to order at 7:30 am.
- II. Prayer and Pledges – Bruce Stidham led the group in prayer and Shay Luedeke led the group in the pledges.
- III. Introductions – Randy Riggs introduced guests John Ames, Cathy Cook, Karen Fisher, Amy Lawson, Haley Click, Sarah Lazarowitz, and Katy Estrada
- IV. President’s Year-in-Review – Tammy McRae gave a summary of her year.
- V. End-of-Conference Report – Allison Getz, Amy Lawson, and Sarah Lazarowitz presented their assessment of the conference. There was resounding approval that this was a successful conference. There were a record 398 conference attendees. Vendor evaluations were overwhelmingly positive, especially noting the number of breaks in the agenda to allow for attendees to visit booths.
- VI. Ad Hoc Committee Report on Separation of Duties – Randy Riggs updated the board on the separation of duties between the Secretary and Treasurer. The By-Laws committee has created a redline proposal of changes for the association by-laws to make this change. Action would need to be taken by the board, then by membership for any change to take effect.
- VII. Discuss and Take Possible Action on Board Retreat – Randy Riggs posed a possible retreat to the board. He presented and reviewed the roles and responsibilities of each of the Directors and discussed his expectations. Various times were discussed to have a board meeting. No dates were set.
- VIII. Set Next Meeting Date – Randy Riggs proposed the next meeting for Friday, September 3rd in Austin following the TAC Legislative conference. The audit will take place the morning of September 1st.
- IX. New Business – Wendy Burgess gave an update on a dealer poll. Shay Luedeke asked about a self-managed website for CEs. Randy Riggs asked that a deeper evaluation of the education process be explored by the education committee.
- X. Adjournment – Wendy Burgess moved and Tammy McRae seconded a motion to adjourn at 8:39 am. Motion passed unanimously.
