

Randy Riggs

Randy has served TACA on the board since 2016. Currently the Vice President-External, he has previously served as Secretary-Treasurer, chair of the Education Committee and vice-chair of the Bylaws Committee. Randy is currently the Tax Assessor-Collector for McLennan County. A graduate of Baylor University with a BBA majoring in accounting, Randy is a Certified Public Accountant serving on numerous boards and commissions locally and nationally. He is on the boards of the Texas Association of Counties, the Property Tax Administration Advisory Board, the Texas School Assessors Association, and the Texas Association of Regional Councils formerly serving as president. Before being elected as Tax Assessor-Collector, Randy served on the Waco City Council. As a councilmember, he served on the Texas Municipal League board, the Governmental Accounting Standards Board Advisory Council, and as the chairman of the Finance committee for the National League of Cities. A fun fact about Randy is that he is a trumpet player and is a charter member of the Waco Jazz Orchestra. He is married and has four daughters, two sons-in-law, and three grandsons.
