

Larry Gaddes is a sixth-generation Texan that has served Williamson County residents for over a decade. In addition to having a PCAC designation from TACA, Larry also holds a Certified Tax Administrator designation – the property tax profession’s highest certification held by only eight other Assessor-Collectors throughout the state. In addition to his experience in the tax profession, Larry served 20 years in leadership roles throughout Central Texas with HEB.

He earned his Bachelor of Business Administration with a Major in Management from Texas State University in San Marcos. He is an active member of the Tax Assessor/Collectors Association of Texas (TACA) and Texas Association of Assessing Officers (TAAO). Larry serves on the Board of Directors for both TACA and the Texas State Alumni Association and enjoys serving as an instructor and presenter on property tax matters for both associations and many local organizations.

Larry and Heather, his wife of 19 years, live in Round Rock with their two sons, Parker and Peyton.
